Dry hands, damaged, irritated?

It keeps being restated: the essential gesture to limit the spread of the Coronavirus is to wash your hands very regularly and to use gels or hydro-alcoholic solutions.

Yet this first instinct is putting unprecedented strain to the hands, they dry out and crack.

In no time, your skin will be soft and moisturized thanks to our SOS hand care products!

Formulas made in France, standard references ready to welcome your brand.

"I want velvet hands back!"

REF. 2C0041A

This hand cream, with zesty, tangy and sparkling notes, will give your hands all the comfort they need. The combination of shea butter, vitamin E, argan oil and bergamot leaves your hands soft and non-greasy.

"I want a Cashmere effect cream!"

REF. 2C0081A

A concentrate of sensations, this soft and velvety emulsion with a melting heart comforts the hands. Its secret of tenderness: the selection of active ingredients specifically chosen to pamper the skin right down to the fingertips. Avocado oil and nourishing shea butter combine with the benefits distilled from a unique ultra-revitalising sea water, naturally enriched with minerals. For a result that is not to be waited for, let its caressing and protective texture take care of your hands... Cashmere effect guaranteed!

"I want to stock up on vitamins!"

REF. 2C0072A

The light and silky texture of this care, specially formulated to be in perfect affinity with the hands, soothes the skin with high-performance active ingredients with targeted and complementary properties. The hands draw from the combined benefits of hyaluronic acid, a moisturizing marine active ingredient and revitalizing marine spring water. All this is boosted by a cocktail of vitamins. Wrapped in an energizing veil, hands are dazzling, sublimated and infinitely soft.

A TARGETED CARE

RIGHT DOWN TO THE TIPS OF THE NAILS

REF. 2C0059A

Just like the hands, cuticles are damaged by over-washing and lack of hydration.

Essential to beautifying hands, this cream enriched with shea butter, brown algae and vitamin E, softens cuticles, protects and nourishes nails. This gentle care, with its moisturizing action, gives immediate comfort to the nails.

Little extra value: apply a thick layer of moisturizing butter on all hands before bedtime and wake up with soft hands!

The ++: this butter can be used all over the body! *

Effectiveness test carried out on 13 volunteers: 24 hours of hydration.*
